

Our Service To You

An experienced and smartly dressed dove handler will arrive with the dove(s) at an agreed time and place.

Single Carriers

Our elegant hand held dove carriers are perfect for family members who wish to release individual doves.

By Hand

Our handlers will assist those who wish to release the doves by hand.

Releasing Doves

A Single Dove

Symbolises the soul and spirit of the deceased.

A Pair of Doves

Symbolic of the joining of two souls - perhaps the deceased is joining another who has departed.

The Trinity Release - Four Doves

The release of three doves, followed by a fourth single dove, to be escorted to heaven.

The White Dove Company

ESTABLISHED . 1991

Release A Dove In Memory Of A Loved One

Flocks From baskets

We have various different shaped and sized baskets.

The White Dove Company

Recognises the simple things that make us smile in thought; this may be as small as a favourite colour or item which can be attached to the dove carrier. Marking these memorable occasions in a personal way.

Private messages (10mm x 40mm) can be attached to the doves before flight.

Friends, Family & Children

May each release a dove.

All making their own individual contribution. Young children may find it hard to understand death. The release of a dove will give them a lasting memory to hold onto.

A flock: 10 - 100 doves

Can be released to celebrate the life of the person who has died.

Remembering A Loved One

Our doves can be released in remembrance at an Interment, Scattering of Ashes, or to mark the yearly Anniversary of their death.

Or perhaps on your loved one's Birthday, Mother's Day, Father's Day, at another time that holds special memories - symbolising the celebration of a life not forgotten

At A Special Place.

Our doves can be released from almost any place that holds dear memories close to your heart. Perhaps where a favourite memory was shared, for example... A Golf Club, Lake, Pub or Walled Garden.

Symbolic Doves

A Funeral Is Not Just A Day In A Lifetime

It's A Lifetime In A Day

It's never easy to say goodbye. Releasing a dove at a funeral pays a moving tribute to a loved one who has passed.

As they begin their journey home, the doves raise joyful memories and give comfort to those left behind on an emotional day.

Our Doves

Have been extensively and knowledgeably trained to navigate back home once released. The safety of our doves is paramount, please be aware that severe weather conditions may not allow the release to take place.

Memorable Gift

A personalised memorial card and a keepsake feather bag (when available) will be given to the family at the time of release.

Your Funeral Director will be happy to organise your booking directly with us on your behalf.
